→ Foundation program University graduate diploma ('Diplôme supérieur universitaire' - DSU)
in Business Law

■ Presentation

Are you a foreign student who wants to enroll for a Master's Degree in Business Law at a French University? At the Université de Franche-Comté, the Faculty of Law, Economics, Political Science and Management (l'UFR Sciences juridiques, économiques, politiques et de gestion - SJEPEG) offers you a training program which will give you the best chance for success in your studies and allow you to obtain an advanced University graduate diploma.

■ Objectives

The 'UFR SJEPEG' offers a training program designed for foreign students who would like to enter its Masters 2 in Business Law program, or another one at another French university. This program lasts for one academic year and leads to: a foundation program University graduate diploma.

In order to meet the needs of students who haven't studied law at French university, this program focuses on enabling students to master the following:

- the concepts of business law and how it is practiced,
- the method needed to meet the requirements of a Masters 2 program,
- the keys to understanding European Law and International Business Law.
